Did you know?

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A POPE DIES

When a pope passes away, the Vatican follows an ancient but carefully organized procedure. First, the Camerlengo (a senior Vatican official) confirms the pope's death. While in the past this meant calling the pope's name three times, today doctors handle the official verification. One of the most symbolic acts that follows is the destruction of the papal signet ring—the ultimate sign of papal authority—to prevent any misuse.

Once confirmed, the world is informed. Flags are lowered, church bells ring out, and Catholics everywhere enter a time of prayer and mourning.

A nine-day mourning period called the Novendiales then begins. During this time:

- The pope's body is dressed in papal vestments.
- The body is placed in St. Peter's Basilica for public viewing, allowing pilgrims and world leaders to pay their respects.

Special Masses and prayers are offered across the Church.

Funerals are usually held four to six days after the pope's death, typically in St.

Peter's Square with thousands gathered. The dean of the College of Cardinals leads the ceremony. Most recent popes have been laid to rest in the Vatican Grottoes, but Pope Francis has expressed a wish to be buried in Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome, where other popes have also been buried.

Traditionally, popes were buried in three coffins (cypress, zinc, and elm), but recent popes, including Francis, have chosen simpler options. A rogito—a document summarizing the pope's life—is placed inside the coffin.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Pope Francis.

Fr Peter

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Sunday 27 April is Divine Mercy Sunday.

This feast day was instituted by Pope St John Paul II, to draw attention to the infinite merciful love of God shown to us in Jesus.

ADDITIONAL MASSES THIS WEEK

There will be two extra Masses this week on Monday 28 April

REST IN PEACE POPE FRANCIS

O God, faithful rewarder of souls, grant that your departed servant Pope Francis,
whom you made successor of Peter and shepherd of your Church,
may happily enjoy for ever in your presence in heaven
the mysteries of your grace and compassion,
which he faithfully ministered on earth.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

PARISH LIBRARY

This week's book | Faustina Apostle of Divine Mercy by Catherine M. Odell and Sister Faustina Kowalska - Her Life and Mission by Maria Tarnawska
Bookcase 2 Bookshelf 1 in Library

During the dark and turbulent years preceding WWII, an unknown and largely unschooled Polish Nun received an amazing revelation of the boundless mercy of God. Despite great opposition, this frail sister never failed to keep her eye on God and her heart attuned to His message for all humanity.

NEW PARISH COMMUNICATIONS VOLUNTEER

Following feedback from our recent Ministry Networking Night, Fr Andrew, with support from the Parish Pastoral Council, has invited Carmen Siataga to take on a new volunteer role to help with parish communications.

Many of you will know Carmen from the 8am Sunday Mass, where she usually comes along with her husband and children. In this new role, she'll be helping to gather and share news about what's happening across the parish — prayer groups, liturgies, social gatherings, and everything in between. She'll also be helping to look after the parish Facebook page and collating news for the monthly diocesan e-newsletter.

If you've got a story, a photo, or news to share — big or small — Carmen would love to hear from you. You can reach her at carmensiataga@gmail.com. She's also hoping to visit the different Mass centres over the next little while to get to know more people.

Thanks for giving Carmen your support as she helps keep us all connected.

NEW TV SCREEN – THANK YOU!
